ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant,

Anait Sarkisyan, is hereby placed on probation on Count Six of the First Superseding Indictment for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318 and obey all laws;
- 2) During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment/restitution/fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
- 3) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
- 4) The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
- 5) As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 USC 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
- 6) The defendant shall participate for a period of 9 months in a home detention program. The home detention program will not include electronic monitoring;
- 7) The defendant shall not engage, directly or indirectly, whether as an owner, partner, shareholder, officer, director, employee, contractor, agent, or consultant, officially or unofficially, in the following businesses: any business submitting claims for reimbursements to the Medicare or Medicaid health care benefit programs, or to private health insurance programs, for any goods or services ("health care benefits program provider"); any any business supplying any goods or services, directly or indirectly, to any health care benefits program provider, including but not limited to referral, supervisory, advisory, consulting, management, staffing, billing, logistical, and financial services,

8) The defendant shall not possess personal identification numbers (including Social Security numbers, medical insurance identification numbers, and medical provider enrollment identification numbers) belonging to persons other than defendant, her spouse, her dependents, or others with a close familial relationship to her.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $37,057 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant Anait Balasanyan, and co-participant, Laksmhi Nadgir (Docket No. 03-CR-00801-JSL), for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. Monthly installments of at least $400, shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05. All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to the restitution.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

Any/ all remaining counts are/or underlying indictments are dismissed on the government's motion. The bond is exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
